

Decisions given by Bombay High Court

1. On Wednesday, the Bombay High Court set aside earlier state orders regulating the fee hikes.
2. School managements were relieved by the court verdict. Now, they don't need to take multiple permissions before hiking fees or make their accounts public.
3. Having to consult so many different parties and putting up our accounts on our websites could have been misused and it would have been a hassle, " said Rohan Bhat, Principal of Children's' Academy at Malad.
